By "Imperial expenditure" is meant provision made for the expansion and improvement of education in those areas which are financed wholly or partially from Imperial resources. The revenue grants to the major provinces will continue unchanged in the forthcoming year. Other grants, made to agencies, etc., have in some cases been made for capital objects; hence the amounts will undergo slight modifications.

GRANTS—1918.

4. New grants are being provided for education out of the surplus of the current year and the revenue of the year 1917-18, to the amount of 974 lakhs, or just short of two and a half millions sterling, viz:—

The distribution of these grants according to objects will be as follows:—

(a) Non-recurring grant of 26 lakhs from the surplus.—The whole of this grant to Local Governments, is allotted to land construction. A specially liberal grant is made to Bengal to provide the balance for the Dacca hostel scheme as well as for hostels elsewhere. A sum of four lakhs is given to the University of Calcutta and the whole of the amount which this institution will receive along with other Universities from the grant from the surplus of ordinary revenue is to enable the University to purchase lands required for expansion of University buildings. The distribution accordingly is:—

	Lakhs of revenue.
Hostels	47.80
Calcutta University	2.20
Total	50.00

(b) Non-recurring grant of 250 lakhs from the surplus of ordinary revenue.—This is distributed to Universities and Local Governments for buildings equipment and other capital charges, as follows:—

Poona University	2.00
University of Allahabad	2.00
Dacca University	15.20
Poona University	8.80
Bangalore University	8.80
Total	44.00

It has already been decided in principle to establish Universities at Dacca, Patna and Banagore and it is necessary to provide for their early foundation. The grants for this purpose, however, are contingent upon the approval by the Government of India or the Secretary of State of advances for their constitution.

Colleges and secondary schools (including training institutions).—24 lakhs.—The Government of Madras are authorized to constitute considerable expenditure upon their engineering colleges. It will be open to that Government to spend a portion of the sum on the subject. The remainder of the total grant is intended for other colleges and secondary schools. The Government of India desire to urge the desire of training in sciences.

Elementary schools.—14 lakhs.—This grant is intended for the erection and equipment of vacuum (mainly elementary) schools and secondary training institutions.

Educational hygienic, gymnasia, playgrounds, swimming-baths, gardens, reading-rooms, convalescence, etc.—20 lakhs.—This grant is intended to make a start at placing education upon a broad basis along the lines indicated in the Resolution No. 101 A.D. of the 12th February last.

Musical instruction.—10 lakhs.—This is designed to encourage the much-needed introduction of musical training into schools; two Local Governments have already framed schemes of this kind.

Technical, industrial and special schools.—25 lakhs.—These objects have been grouped together under a single head in order that Local Governments may deal freely with their grants according to the exigencies of local requirements.

European education.—25 lakhs.—There are large demands for the improvement of buildings and equipment in schools for the domestic community in all provinces except Bihar and Orissa, where the schools for such education are not numerous and are reported to have been satisfied by previous grants.

The Government of India are about to address Local Governments on the question of encouraging Mohammedan education generally. But they do not desire to delay any pending schemes and they have no doubt that Local Governments in distributing grants will make provision for special Mohammedan institutions.

(c) Reserving grant of 55 lakhs out of the revenue of the existing year.—Six lakhs is held in reserve by the Government to meet unforecast requirements such as proposals for the development of Central schools and Mohammedan education and 49 lakhs distributed as follows:—

	Lakhs of rupees.
Universities	5.00
Primary education	10.00
State education	5.00
Colleges and training institutions	5.00
Secondary education	5.00
Technical and special education	5.00
Musical training	1.00
European education	5.00
Total	46.00

Universities.—5.00 lakhs.—Reserving grants have been made during the current year to the existing universities for the improvement of research work and higher teaching. The result of that experiment is awaited. Meanwhile, the Government of India desire to make adequate provision for the creation of new Universities and a new type of teaching and residential society—a mixture to which they attach great importance. They are accordingly allotting 5 lakhs for the proposed teaching and residential University at Dacca (for which Rs. 45,000 has already been given); and for universities at Patna and Banagore sums of 1 lakh and 500,000 respectively. These expenditures will be earmarked upon specific objects. Meanwhile these reserving grants will accumulate a fund which should provide for capital charges.

5. The distribution of both non-recurring and recurring grants has been calculated, first, upon the population and other statistical considerations in each province; second, upon an estimate as verified and by each Local Government, of the requirements over the next three years. These estimates are necessarily of a rough nature. Local Governments were anxiously invited to consider them on their merits and to make such modifications as they saw fit. The Government of India desire to state that the values of such Local Government and might be able approximately to adjust the amount of grant under each head to the necessities of the provinces. The Government of India do not desire to tie down Local Governments too rigidly to particular heads, provided there is a general orderliness in policy, and will consider favourably applications for transfer of some from one institutional head to another subject to the general provision.

6. The distribution under (a) and (b) and the distribution of 49 lakhs under (c) represents provision in the budgets of major Local Governments only, except that some are allotted under (c) to the North-West Frontier Province and Coorg. The totals shown will not be wholly utilized in the provincial budgets during the coming year but will be made available according to the spending capacity of each Local Government and upon other considerations. None of the sums in the North-West Frontier Province, Coorg (except from the recurring grant of 50 lakhs), Baluchistan, Ajmer-Merwara, the Province of India, or other special areas such as those administered by Political Officers. For the Distribution of the recurring grant of Rs. 55,30,000.

EDUCATIONAL SUMMARY—MARCH 1915.

The statistical table of educational progress in British India is appended and will be published in the Gazette of India. The figures there shown include the year 1912-13. The amount of principal developments, given below, is brought up to date.

3. Statistics of pupils.—The grand total of pupils in all institutions (including private institutions) has risen by 425,124 to 8,785,731. All provinces show an increase. The increases in the United Provinces, the Punjab, Eastern Bengal and Assam and the North-West Frontier Province amount to over 8 per cent. of the total figures for 1912-13. The smallest increases are in Burma and Coorg. The increase in pupils during the quinquennium ending 1913 was 846,715; during the quinquennium ending 1915 it was 1,372,880.

4. The percentages of those at school to those of school-going age (published at 25 per cent. of the population) has risen, in the case of boys to 39.8, in that of girls to 4.7, or that of both to 16.5. The percentages of both boys and girls in public and private institutions together has risen from 12.8 to 17.7, and the percentage to the whole population from 5.6 to 7.4. Bombay, Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam show over 32 per cent. of boys of school-going age at school in public institutions; Madras over 30 per cent.; and Coorg nearly 20 per cent.; Burma and the United Provinces over 20 per cent.; in the United Provinces, the Punjab and the North-West Frontier Province, the percentages range from 15 to 17. The highest figures for girls are 18 per cent. in Coorg and 8.8 per cent. in Burma. The United Provinces is last with 1.4 per cent.

5. There has been an appreciable increase in the number of pupils of primary schools. In 1910-1911 the increase was 85,550, or 4.5 per cent. of the previous year's figures. During the two years under review it was 258,555, or 7.8 per cent. In college and higher institutions, the increase has been less marked than in the previous year, and amounted to 25,867. The figures for higher institutions are as follows:—

	Males	Females	Total
In colleges	85,528	508	86,036
In high schools	290,367	16,804	3,07,171
In middle schools	670,735	45,818	7,16,553

6. In primary schools the figures now stand:—

Males	4,205,630
Females	710,511

There has been an increase in every position.

6. The number of those under training for the professions of teaching has risen by nearly 800, and now stands at 12,354. The number of those who qualified indicates a slight falling off and was 4,101.

7. Technical school pupils number 12,093, an increase of 1,952.

8. The number in schools for Khasians and the domestic community has increased by 374 and now stands at 25,720.

9. The increase in Mohammedan pupils has been noteworthy, amounting to 380,547. In secondary schools and colleges the increase has been 15,813, in elementary schools 72,598. The total in institutions of the former kind is now 174,901, in those of the latter, 1,961,705. The remainder of the increase and of the totals are in institutions of other kinds, the complete total being 1,518,890 pupils, of whom 402,333 were in the provinces of Eastern Bengal and Assam.

10. Statistics of expenditure.—The total expenditure was Rs. 7,68,82,908, an increase of Rs. 47,38,068 over that of the preceding year. In this instance public funds have contributed Rs. 51,82,690, against an increase under this head of Rs. 9,30,000 in the year before. Of the total, roughly 400 lakhs are now met from public funds (against 370 lakhs in the preceding year), viz., 370 lakhs (against 310 lakhs) from provincial, 100 from district and 30 from municipal. (On the last item the Bombay Presidency contributed one-third.) Of the 360 lakhs from private sources, few contributed 218 lakhs.

11. Among the larger provinces, the highest expenditure is in Bengal, 172 lakhs; the lowest in the United Provinces, 52½ lakhs. There is Madras, Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam, public funds contributed more than private.

12. The average annual cost of educating a pupil has slightly risen, from Rs. 15 55 to Rs. 15 8. But the expenditure indicates that indirectly incurred, as in buildings, etc.

13. Principal developments.—The main developments of the last and of immediately preceding years have been described in the resolution which appeared in the Annals of India published on the 12th February 1912, which also lays down the policy of the Government of India. The comprehensive review of education is now under consideration and will give further information. For year extended the meeting at the Imperial Durbar by command of His Most Gracious Majesty the King-Emperor of his profoundest interest in educational advancement, the announcement of a recurring Imperial grant of 50 lakhs for the promotion of truly popular education, and the high expression of his hope and wishes for the expansion and improvement of education delivered by His Majesty the King-Emperor in graciously accepting an address presented by the Calcutta University. In addition to the recurring grant of 50 lakhs, a recurring grant of 30 lakhs was mentioned for university and higher education, and a non-recurring grant of 80 lakhs was also made. There has been expansion in expenditure accompanied by an increase of those under instruction.

Other features of the year have been the selection of materials for the preparation of selective schemes for the spread of elementary education, and, in certain provinces, for the improvement of secondary education; the growth of new ideas regarding secondary teaching, which has resulted in the proposal for a teaching and residential university at Dacca; the generous gift of Sir T. S. Pail to the University of Calcutta; the creation of a department of industries at Madras as a portion of the scheme of industrial training and development; the sanctioning of an industrial scheme for the Central Provinces; an inquiry carried out by Colonel Alcock and Mr. Dwyer into the question of bringing technical institutions into closer touch with the employers of labour; the institution of proposals for an Orissa Research Institute; and the conference held in July 1912 on the education of the domestic community, whose interests have not been overlooked in the distribution of Imperial grants.

Candidates whose names are put in the printed list furnished to the Superintendents must submit a written declaration through the Superintendents giving full particulars in regard to themselves including their address and furnish such evidence as may be possible of their having applied for admission to the examination at the proper time and paid the prescribed fees. The answer papers of such candidates will not be valued unless it is clear that the candidate of their name is the one on each of them.

II.—NOTICE TO MARIA CANDIDATES.

Candidates who have applied to be examined at Malacca are informed that they will have to sit for their examinations at the Examiners House, Cheong.

No ball-tickets will be sent, (except in the case of Type-writing—Elementary and Intermediate grades—see No. III below) but a copy of the manual will be posted on the notice board at the entrance to the Examiners House, on the 25th April, and candidates are expected to notice their register numbers from this list.

III.—NOTICE REGARDING THE EXAMINATION IN TYPE-WRITING.

Ball-tickets sent in the Manual.

Candidates coming up in Type-writing must bring with them their own type-writers—the Remington, Tred, New Century, Smith Premier, Dymally, Tinsley, Underwood, Oliver, Armstrong or L. C. Smith & Bros. machines. The candidates will, if necessary, be examined in batches, but at least every five candidates for the Elementary grade, at least every three candidates for the Intermediate grade and at least every two candidates for the Advanced grade must have one machine among them.

In the several kinds of institutions where are desirous that their pupils should be examined in batches and private candidates who desire to be similarly examined should make the necessary arrangements with the Chief Superintendent concerned three days before the examination and furnish him with all necessary information as to the number of candidates and machines and the time in which each batch should sit for the examination.

At Malacca, heads of institutions and private candidates should make similar arrangements with the Secretary to the Examinations for Government Examinations, on the 15th, 16th or 17th April between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., at the Old College, Singapore.

At Malacca—in the case of candidates for the Elementary and Intermediate grades, tickets of admission specifying the particular batch (first and second) in which they elect to appear will be issued on these days. These tickets should be shown at the entrance. Candidates who produce tickets will be admitted to the batch specified in the tickets. Candidates who do not provide themselves with tickets must elect to be admitted to any particular batch. They will be admitted only if space seats are available in the batch, i.e., when seats are reserved for those who have registered their names and returned tickets for the batch. Candidates who do not hold tickets will accordingly have to wait at the entrance from the hour of commencement of the first batch and take their chance of being provided with seats in the first or in any subsequent batch. To avoid all inconvenience and possibly dangerous work heads of institutions and private candidates are particularly requested to call at the office on the 15th, 16th, or 17th April and obtain tickets. No tickets can in any manner be sent by post whether to heads of institutions or to private candidates.

Candidates for the Advanced grade may appear for the first or second batch in their option and no tickets accordingly are issued for this grade.

At Malacca—Managers and instructors of institutions and other persons who wish to be allowed into the examination hall to inspect the machines and remove any defects should call at the office on the 15th, 16th or 17th April and have their names registered. Tickets of admission specifying their name, the institution to which they belong, etc., will be issued to them and these should be produced at the entrance to the examination hall.

The examinations in Type-writing will, wherever the candidates have to be examined in batches be conducted as in the following timetable.—

N.B.—No candidate will be allowed to leave his seat in the interval between the first and second papers.

In the case of the Elementary examination, candidates of the first and second batches will not be allowed to leave the examination hall until 12-10 p.m., and no candidate for the third and fourth batches coming after this hour will be admitted to the examination. For the Intermediate examination, candidates of the first batch will not be allowed to leave until 1-10 p.m., and no candidate for the second and third batches coming after this hour will be admitted. Similarly for the Advanced examination, candidates of the first batch will not be allowed to leave until 2-10 p.m., and no candidate for the second batch coming after this hour will be admitted. Candidates that have such a separate machine and that do not want to be examined in batches are expected to appear for their examinations with the third batch for the Elementary, and with the second batch for the Intermediate and Advanced examinations.

Managers and instructors of institutions concerned will be allowed into the examination rooms in the intervals between the completion of the various papers to inspect the machines and to remedy any defects.

If a candidate reports to the Superintendent that his machine has gone out of order, the Superintendent will instruct him to the Manager or instructor. If he is waiting outside of the premises, and will permit such manager or instructor to enter the hall or room (though the candidate may be at work) to inspect the machine and to remedy the defect or to supply another machine. It must, however, be clearly understood that the Superintendent incurs no responsibility in this matter; his action will be purely as passive, the whole responsibility resting on the candidate and the manager or instructor.

A similar concession will be allowed in the case of a private candidate if he has someone outside who is willing to inspect the machine and put it right, etc.

No action will be taken in candidate to compensate for loss of time while the machine is out of order and being put right.

Report of the Select Committee on the Madras Irrigation Cess (Amendment) Bill, 1902, with the Bill as amended by the Committee on Tamil, Telugu and Hindustani.	1
---	---

Bill introduced into the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for making Laws and Regulations.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Madras Irrigation Cess Act, 1902, together with the Bill as amended by the Committee, is published for general information:

To

THE HONOURABLE THE COUNCIL OF THE GOVERNOR OF

FORT ST. GEORGE FOR MAKING LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

We, the members of the Select Committee appointed to report on the Bill to amend the Madras Irrigation Cess Act, 1902, have the honour to submit our report thereon to the Council.

2. We have received no representations from the public with regard to the provisions of the Bill and the alterations which we have made are largely verbal.

3. In order to prevent inconsistency with the principal Act and to elucidate the provisions of the Bill, we have added to clause 3 definitions of the terms "landholder," "seventh year" and "ryot."

4. Clauses 3 and 4 have undergone substantial alterations. In the first place, in accordance with the intention of Government as announced by the Hon'ble Sir John Atkinson to the Legislative Council on the 15th March 1903, we have omitted the concluding words of clause 3 empowering Government to determine the order in which defaulters may be proceeded against for the recovery of water-cess and we have so modified clause 4 as to make it plain that proceedings cannot be taken in execution against the landholder and the ryot and that an arrear must be recovered, (a) from the landholder, or (b) from the ryot, or (c) from both, but in shares to be fixed by rule.

5. In clause 4 and also in clause 5 we have intentionally omitted any reference to the rights and liabilities of the tenant. Our reason for this is the absence of any definition of that term in the Madras Estates Land Act, 1908, and the difficulty of dealing with the varying gradations of interest which it may comprise.

6. In revising clause 4 we have also omitted the explicit declaration that the water-cess is recoverable as arrears of land revenue. We consider this fact to be sufficiently declared by section 2 of the principal Act, but in order to bring it out more clearly, we have changed the order of the proposed new section which as section 1-A will precede section 2 instead of following it.

7. Another change in clause 4, of which mention should be made, consists in the omission of sub-section (3) of the new section as first drafted. According to the scheme of the original Bill the landholder and ryot were both liable and it was open to Government to proceed firstly against the one and secondly against the other. When, however, the Bill was modified so as to make only one but not both of the parties liable in respect of the same arrears it seemed to us no longer necessary to provide special procedure enabling the landholder to recover from a ryot payments of cess which the latter ought to have made but which were in fact collected from the landholder himself. We are of opinion that it is sufficient to leave such recoveries to litigation before the ordinary civil courts which have power to enforce agreements between landholder and ryot.

8. In clause 4 we have also added to the proposed new section a sub-section making it clear that the Government have power to sell the ryot's interest in the land; it is essential, we think, that water-cess should take precedence of rent.

9. It remains, in conclusion, to say that we devoted much time and consideration to the difficult question of the principles which should govern the rules to be framed for the purpose of determining the respective liabilities of the landholder and the ryot with regard to water-cess payments. With every desire to embody such principles in the Bill we were reluctantly forced to the conclusion that in the limited time at our disposal it was not practicable to do so. It is possible, however, that detailed enquiries and further careful examination may solve this problem, and in the hope that this may prove to be the case we recommend that the present Bill should be regarded merely as a temporary piece of legislation. With this end in view we have inserted in clause 1 words limiting the continuance of the measure until the 31st December 1916.

Observations regarding clause 5.

Apart from the consideration that section 5 of the Bill is ultra vires of the Council, the section as framed covers two classes of cases, viz., collections made before the passing of the decisions S.A. Nos. 1592/07 and 261/04 by the High Court and similarly those made subsequent to the date of the said decisions. In the former class it is but fair and reasonable that the Government or the landholder as the case may be, should not be held liable for refund of the cess collected, as the collection should be deemed to be bona fide. In the latter class of cases it is not desirable that the Bill should be given retrospective operation so as to affect payments made before the passing of this Bill but subsequent to the decisions aforesaid, especially as the High Court pronounced its judgments that the landholders alone should be proceeded against for the recovery of the cess. In any event, the amendment of this section from this Bill does not lead to any practical difficulties as the number of cases in which refunds have to be made to the ryots by the Government or the landholders as the case may be would possibly be small having regard to the laws of landholders and such other considerations.

20th April 1915.

C. V. S. NARASIMHA RAO.

Misdeed of Government.

I have signed the report subject to certain observations on the Bill as now amended. It is a matter for satisfaction that the Bill as now put forward is a transitory measure and that the whole subject must, in the light of experience, come up for reconsideration again in the Council before December 1916. At the same time I cannot approve of the provisions of the Bill as amended by my colleagues. The Bill does not enunciate any general principle from which the liability of the landholder or the ryot for the payment of the water-cess is to be determined by executive authority nor does it set out the circumstances under which one party or the other is to be made liable. It has been explained that from the materials at present available it will be unable to lay down in general terms the grounds of liability of one party or the other. The object of the present Bill, it is stated, is merely to legalize the existing practice. The rules framed under the Water-cess Act and embodied in the Standing Orders authorize the Government to collect the cess from the person who applies for the water. To this extent at least, I do not see any difficulty in so framing the Bill as to give effect to this practice. The Bill does not moreover contain any restrictive provisions to safeguard existing rights of the ryots in estates. In the case of irrigation it entitles the Government to have, where there is a certain amount of unused or unenclosed wet exempt from the cess, always been collecting the cess from the landholder for the area in excess of the exempted area, the ryots paying a consolidated wet rate to the landholder. In fact, sub-clause (2) of clause 4 of the Bill as originally introduced contained provisions which implied that it was the intention of the Government to proceed on this basis. The Bill as now amended contains no restrictions whatever in regard to the collection of the cess in regard to this class of irrigation and it is open to Government to collect the cess at will even with the present conditions either from the landholder or the ryot. If the cess is wrongly collected by rules from the ryot against the existing practice it is doubtful whether, under the present Bill, he can recover it from the landholder where it is in excess of the rest due to him and it is equally doubtful whether if the remainder is made liable under the rules for the cess, he can proceed to recover it from the ryot. It seems to me that, under these circumstances, provision should have been made in clause 4 of the Bill that the cess is leviable only from the landholder at least in cases where a wet rate is levied from the ryot and from the ryot where he applies for or uses the water. Clause 5 of the Bill raises an intricate question relating to the Legislative Councils in India. The decision of the Privy Council in the Secretary of State for India vs Council of Madras (17 Calcutta L.J. 194) that a local legislature cannot legislate so as to affect the provisions of the Government of India Act, 1858, seems to my mind to be clear. I think the proposed clause comes within the terms of the above ruling and would deprive the subject of his right to sue the Government in civil courts and should not be inserted in the Bill.
